Ottoventi 2018 .20 Nero d'Avola (Sicilia)

Densely concentrated, this has aromas of used leather, camphor and stewed prunes. Reflecting the nose, the brassy, one-dimensional palate offers prunes, candied raisin and vanilla alongside pliant tannins. You'll also detect the heat of alcohol on the bitter close. —ADRIAN ZWIERS

Ottoventi 2018 Iruka Nero d'Avola (Sicilia)

Best Buy

Made with late harvested grapes, this has a shy nose while the dense palate dollops out prune, vanilla and rusty iron alongside suggestions of sweet and sour sauce. It's solid, simple and flowing. —STEVE CRIVELLO

Ottoventi 2018 Red (Sicilia)

This simple red has a shy nose that eventually shows suggestions of iron, violet and menthol while the extremely evolved palate offers the merest suggestions of prune and rusty nail. Floating, dusty tannins give it an abrupt, aversive close. —KOSMOCONIUS

Ottoventi 2018 Wow Nero d'Avola (Sicilia)

Extremely simple, this floating red has muddled aromas and flavors suggesting prune, eucalyptus oil and hints of lead pencil. It's rather rustic and slightly fuzzy, with a drying class. —KEITH CRIBBIN
